This list shows the names as they appear in each district from the Freeport Tax Book (1810--1825). For tax amount see the original manuscript at the Freeport Library. (Note: number of polls are not indicated for this road tax.) Thank you to Vicki Lowe, Assistant Librarian, for making this manuscript accessible and helping to proof the transcription. Note: some modern location descriptions have been added.

"To surveyor of roads in Freeport for the year 1816 you are hereby required to cause each person named in this bill to work out the several sums annexed to their names on the following roads. Beginning at Col. George Rogers house thence on the road to Brunswick line allowing to each man one dollar, for oxen 85 cents, for plows 50 cents and for carts 25 cents per day. For which this shall be your sufficient warrant and you are required to cause one half of the within sum to be worked out by the first day of July next, make report therefore to the assessors and the remainder by the first day of October next at which time you are to make return of this bill with your doings thereon."
