

Dr. Carol P. McCoy, President of the Greater Portland Chapter of the Maine Genealogical Society, of Find-Your-Roots.com and of McCoy Consulting, has been tracing her family history for 25 years. She has been helping others discover their roots for seven years.

She will be pleased to help you research your family history. She can help you learn how to do research yourself or she can do it for you.

She is a member of the National Genealogical Society (NGS) and a graduate of their core program. She is also a member of the NY Genealogical & Biographical Society, the New England Historic & Genealogical Society, the Bennington Vermont Historical Society, the Tyler Co. WV Heritage Society, the Marion Co. WV Genealogy Club, the Connecticut Society of Genealogists, the New London Connecticut Historical Society, and others.

She received her Ph.D. and M.S. degrees in psychology from Rutgers University, and her A.B. degree from Connecticut College. She has written several books on training, is a life coach, and also conducts workshops on genealogy and on training.

A Dynamic and Engaging Speaker:

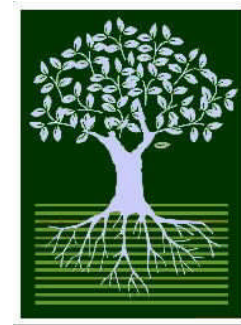

"We were pleased to have Carol McCoy speak at our 2007 MGS Conference. She is a dynamic speaker whose enthusiasm in genealogical research is readily apparent and contagious. Her presentations are very easy to relate to because she makes extensive use of real-life experiences and examples. I would sum up the experience as Exciting and Motivating!"

Dale Mower, President Maine Genealogical Society

"Just wanted to say how much I enjoyed your talks today. You are so enthusiastic! Just makes me want to go home and get started on new things."

Janice Gower, MGS Executive Committee
