John Harden's Family

- John Harden was born about 1750 (based on his tombstone.)
 - He married about 1773. (Ezekiel was born about 1774.)
 - Perhaps he married an unknown Halstead who died before 1790 or so—
 - Ezekiel and Samuel give children the middle name of “Halstead/Halsted”.
 - Thomas and Joseph Halstead lived in Schaticoke in 1779
 - Halsteads were early settlers of Oneida Co. where Ezekiel moved in 1819.
- Sarah who d. 1833 was not John Harden's first wife (since she was born in 1765).
- John Harden had about 13 children.
- Ezekiel Harding (b. Oct 1774) was next to John Harding in the 1800 census.
- Sarah Harden b. 26 Dec 1779 d. 31 Oct 1854; m. Clark Satterlee/Satterly
- Samuel Hardin b. 22 Oct 1782 in Rensselaer Co. (1855 NY State Census)
- Ezekiel's son, Henry Hardin, born in Rensselaer Co. NY about 1799.
- Daughter Sarah married Clark Satterlee (Satterly), who is in District 26 of Hartford 1801. (Road Tax Assessment 1801.)
- Children Ira, Abner and Jesse get 1/3 of John Harden's Estate and are named Executors of his Will. Perhaps they were Sarah's children.

In 1791 Pittstown became part of Rensselaer County.

John Harden's Move to Hartford, Washington County, New York

- 1800. John Harding and Ezekiel Harding are in the Federal Census in Hartford, Washington Co. NY
- John Harden is not on the tax list for Pittstown in 1800
- 1801. John Harden purchased Lot C (145 acres) of Great Lot 84 (William Cockroft's Patent) in Hartford west of the swamp. His son, Ezekiel Harden owned the lower 55 acres, and Moses Cook(e) owned the upper 50 acres in 1805.
- The Story of Hartford states that John Harden lived west of the Tamarack Swamp (this land would be in Lot 84.)
- 1801-1825 John Harden was assessed a road tax to work on the road in District 26 of Hartford, Washington Co., NY. He worked from 13 to 20 days a year on the road (now Route 40) in South Hartford.
- Ezekiel Harden was assessed a road tax in District 26 for many years as well. He worked about 2 to 7 days a year for his smaller lot.
